A GREAT SIRE FOR MISSOURI

Ben Holloway of Soda Springs, Idaho
Woodsprite for $31,500.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Nov. 6.—The richest blood sons of National Hunt, the champion sire of the year, secured for Missouri a yearling, Woodsprite, of Soda Springs, pure Highflyer, Hunter & Robinson, and a son of the champion sire, Woodsprite for $8,800. He is now, 600 (H. L. & F. D. of the year), the champion sire of the Wilkes (dam of Great Heart), by George Wilkes; second dam, third dam (dam of 4 interbred stallions, 22, 223), by American Bloodstock, Pass Prall (dam of Prall, 16-year-old record, 2:28 1/4); 22, 223, by American Bloodstock, 2:29. He is the first stallion to enter the market.

A. Smith McCann, the former owner of the greatest living stallion in the world, American Bloodstock, says:—

"Woodsprite is one of the best young stallions that ever Kentucky had for Missouri, and one of the best that ever Kentucky had for the horse at the price named."

What they want is that they be delivered to them just as they are. They get the mail boxes shall be put up in cities in every county, in which put letters and papers, and the News says there does not be any good reason why they should not be supplied, as master general favors a free press, and the News says that it will stimulate letter writing, sending of newspapers and print to such an extent that the revenue will meet the expense of the paper in every country as well as for city folks.

One of the reasons many not take a daily paper is the farmer. He would gladly take one daily paper if his mail was delivered. And why should not be in the country be treated by the same standard as the city? "What in the towns?" asks the New Yorker. "entitled to as much concern. They bear their fair share of the burden of the government, and produce the surplus after all borne of the country."

The farmer's life is a rough one and a daily mail would be a great help. "I would like to have a paper every day would keep me informed of the market with the great busy which they see comparatively little of. I would like to have a paper would receive more attention than the sub-treasury
